Re: 26th Annual Asian American Youth Leadership Conference

The 26th Annual Asian American Youth Leadership Conference will be held on Friday, May 11, 2018 at Concordia University. The goal of the conference is to help our youth achieve their potential by promoting education, fostering leadership development, cultivating self-confidence, providing resources, and encouraging civic engagement. This year's theme is "Ignite".

The Planning Committee consists of members from the Asian American communities as well as representatives from schools, community-based organizations, Concordia University, and the Chinese American Citizens Alliance. We plan this conference as a community event and anticipate 400+ students representing many diverse backgrounds in attendance.

We look forward to having students from your school represented at the conference. Please mark your calendar with the deadlines as noted for the applications and forms associated with the conference. All application forms for our programs and competitions can be downloaded at AAYLC.org under the 2018 Conference Info tab. Please refer to the contact persons listed below should you have questions regarding any of the programs.

A packet of conference information, including the selection criteria, will be forwarded to the school designee by email attachment and/or mail package. The goal of the Student Ambassador Program is to allow students to hone their leadership skills by participating in the planning and promotion of the conference. Winning entries will be on display at the conference and published on the AAYLC.org website. The winner(s) will also receive prizes and recognition at the conference. Contact person: Erika Wong at 503-358-8258 or logocontestaaaylc@gmail.com.

Thousands of students have benefited from this conference in the past and I am confident that the upcoming conference will serve students equally well, if not better.
